

HONOREES

Mary Lewis/Oregon Monitor Advocate Oregon Employment Department

As Oregon's Monitor Advocate, Mary Lewis has worked tirelessly to ensure that Oregon's farmworkers receive appropriate job training, job placement and other employment services. She has helped to make the state's employment service system more accessible to the most vulnerable workers, including those with limited literacy and limited English skills.

Michael B Dye/Attorney at Law

Michael Dye received his law degree from Willamette University. Since 1970 he has had his own private law practice. He has represented the Hispanic community for the past 35 years in all areas of law, specializing in personal injury and workers compensation, and has expanded his practice to immigration matters.

Silverton Together/Somos Hispanas Unidas

O.B. Bergin, Program Manager/Susana Ghio, Leader
Silverton Together's mission is to strengthen and support families and to facilitate community cooperation in promoting the health and well-being of all children and families. This organization has helped to form Somos Hispanas Unidas, a group dedicated to bring Hispanic women together to discuss and address issues facing their community.

Oregon Child Development Coalition

Donelda Dodson, Executive Director

OCDC was established in 1971 after a tragic farm accident involving a young child inspired volunteers from agricultural communities throughout Oregon to join together. Today, the coalition provides quality early childhood education and comprehensive services to nearly 4,000 children and families in 12 counties throughout Oregon as a catalyst for growth, development and independence. Cited by federal program reviewers as a "program of excellence."
